STUDENT COUNCIL

Composed of representatives elected proportionately to the size of each class, in addition to the President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Student Body, the Council maintains discipline and order in the student body and is charged with enforcing the school regulations.

(Left to Right) M. Petersen, Treasurer; P. Krueger; L. Kriefall; L. Bruning, President; Martin Wolters; W. Sumeri; Don Lutz; E. Huettig, Secretary; Melvin Wolters.

During the past year the Concordia Missionary Society canvassed both the area around the school and the Gresham district in preparation for the establishment of new missions, and distributed door-hangers announcing the new church in the Capitol Hill district of Portland. These services, in addition to the regular bi-weekly topics and projects, have made the Society's year a busy and eventful one.

STANDING—Lee Bruning, President.

FRONT—Don Lutz; L. Mietzner; Martin Wolters, Project Chairman; D. Vahsholtz; L. Gogl.

CENTER—B. Schwarz; Melvin Wolters; R. Streufert; J. Lang; L. Kniep.

REAR—R. Hedwall, Program Chairman; D. Wildermuth; L. Kriefall, Secretary; P. Krueger, Treasurer.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

CONCORDIA ACADEMY CHORUS

Dedicated to the worship of God, the promotion of the cause of Concordia, and the enjoyment of singing, the Chorus under the direction of Mr. Wilbert Grimm scheduled an extensive tour into southern Idaho this spring. Of the three principal states represented by the students of Concordia, Idaho is the only one not visited previously by the Chorus. Thus the work of the Chorus has become a symbol of the ever-growing spirit of Concordia.

CENTER—D. Larson; F. Eng-lert; P. Hein; D. Becker, M. Meyer; Don Lutz; Melvin Wolters; Charles Meyer; W. Sumeri; G. Gans; Mr. Wilbert Grimm, Director.

REAR — D. Wildermuth; L. Schwarz; E. Schwidder; M. Petersen; G. Kniep; I. Orth; David Lutz; L. Kriefall; R. Leder; W. Muhly; Martin Wolters; B. Schwarz. (Not re-presented: K. Gorden).

"C" CLUB

Membership in the "C" Club is open to all lettermen who are interested in furthering the athletic activities of the school and providing a common interest for the athletes.

The Staff which compiled the '48 BLUE AND WHITE also publishes the monthly NORTHWEST CONCORDIAN, with the following platform:

1. To work for the betterment of Concordia.
2. To supply information about happenings at Concordia.
3. To stimulate school spirit.
4. To provide experience in student journalism.

Concordia is indebted to the many friends who have contributed so much to its program.

During the past year the Concordia Academy Guild, an active organization composed of women of the Oregon-Washington District, purchased furnishings for the lounge and infirmary room, contributed to the salary of the office secretary, donated a Bendix washer, sponsored the opening day reception and the Senior-Junior banquet, in addition to other projects. A series of 12 regional Concordia Guild rallies was conducted this spring throughout the Northwest.

The Lutheran Education Society of the Pacific Northwest, a group of loyal Concordia supporters, this year contributed seven new typewriters and a sound motion picture projector to the Academy.

The Concordia Alumni Association provided mural crucifixes for each study room and paid for the reconditioning of the athletic field.

Some fifteen tons of foodstuffs were contributed to Concordia's commissary by congregations in Idaho, Oregon and Washington.
